Neinver is one of the biggest Investors in the retail sector in Europe and the leading one in Spain. Company was established in 1969 and their first Factory retail centre was located in Madrid Las Rozas.

3 storey building of 153 000 sqm will have multi-storey car park for 2000 vehicles. There will be foot-bridge in front of gallery connecting Bulwar Nadmaltański with the main entrance to Malta.

Bovis Lend Lease was appointed by Neinver as a Construction Manager for two projects in Wrocław Factory Outlet (2005 – 2006) and Medianas (2007 – 2008).

The building will be made with glass and steel. Around gallery there will be places for leisure and entertainment.

Last year Bovis Lend Lease was also appointed as a Project Manager for new retail and leisure centre Malta in Poznań.

Famous Portuguese decorator and architect Paolo Lobo designs interior.

Located on the shores of Lake Malta, Galeria Malta is representative of a new generation of shopping centres. The scheme will represent a mixed development and will comprise an outstanding tenant lin-up, featuring fashion retailers, dining area, department stores, a supermarket, cinemas and a health club.

Pracownia architektoniczna Ewy i Stanisława Sipińskich with cooperation APA Wojciechowski are Designers for Malta Project.
